How can I be an effective evangelizer? To be an effective evangelizer, we don't need to be professional theologians or Scripture scholars. The greatest asset we can bring to evangelization is being ourselves. Today's Gospel reminds us that we evangelize through humility, remembering for ourselves and giving witness to others that the followers of Jesus are called to share His message through gentle actions.

PRAYER ON LABOR DAY

Lord Jesus Christ, it is the Christian religion based on Your teachings that freed work from its degrading character and made it into something noble—so much so that it has become associated with the so-called work-ethic, symbolized by St. Paul's practical principle: "If anyone will not work, let him not eat!" Let me realize that Christians work in imitation of You and the Father in accord with Your words: "My Father has been working till now and I work."

By work we build up the world, as mentioned by the lines of a classic poem: "Go bless the noble working men who rear the cities of the plain, who dig the mines and build the ships, and drive the commerce of the main. God bless them! For their swarthy hands have wrought the glory of our lands."

Let me also understand that work is good because it builds up Your Body in the world until Your second coming in glory.

Amen.
