EVANGELIZATION: Psalm Sunday: This Sunday is Psalm Sunday and the drama of Holy Week is upon us. As we remember the great sacrifice of Jesus this week, let us think of someone in our lives who needs to hear the Good News of Christ—that even death cannot destroy the love of God for each of us. Our lives may have “Good Fridays,” but Easter Sunday is our promise.

SECOND COLLECTION; For our St. Vincent de Paul will be taken up today. Please be generous.

BLESSED SACRAMENT CANDLE PAID FOR THE MONTH OF MARCH BY ISABEL BONNEY FOR THE INTENTION OF FAMILY.

“The Lord God have given me a well-trained tongue, that I may know how to speak to the weary a word that will rouse them,” says Isaiah in today’s first reading. The gifts God has given us are likewise given for the good of others. How am I using my gifts. See Isaiah 50:4

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE MISSION STATEMENT: In sharing with others our faith, experience, and earthly goods, we grow in faith and are living the missionary call that goes out to all believers. Our pastor, Fr. Hoi Tran, our ministers, and all our parishioners extend our arms in welcome to all others not in our worshipping community to worship with us and to assist us with your prayers and charitable works as we walk our spiritual journey together.

PRAYER ON PALM SUNDAY

“Dear Lord, today we remember Your triumphant journey into Jerusalem, but let us not turn our backs on You in the coming days, weeks, months and years as the rejoicing crowd did after that day! Help us to stay on our journey with You day by day. Keep us ever faithful to our commitment to spend more time with You.

To give just an hour a day in Your company through prayer and the scriptures, and perhaps even an hour a week, Your Divine Presence in the Blessed Sacrament. Help us to forgo the temptation to return to our lazy ways when this Lenten Period is over. Into Your Hands Dear Lord I commend my spirit!” .

Amen.
