EVANGELIZATION: Seeing and Believing: Through the centuries, St. Thomas, has been portrayed as "the Doubter" because of the events recorded in today's Gospel. But we shouldn't forget that encountering the living Jesus, Thomas does not hesitate to exclaim "My Lord and My God!" Let us also give firm and quick response to anyone who asks us about our faith in the risen Christ. Though we have not see, we believe—and Jesus calls us blessed.

"The Lord God have given me a well-trained tongue, that I may know how to speak to the weary a word that will rouse them," says Isaiah in today's first reading. The gifts God has given us are likewise given for the good of others. How am I using my gifts. See Isaiah 50:4

PRAYER TO THE DIVINE MERCY

I fly to Your mercy, Compassionate God, who alone are good. Although my misery is great and my offenses are many, I trust in Your mercy, because You are the God of mercy; and, from time immemorial, it has never been heard of, nor do heaven or earth remember, that a soul trusting in Your mercy has been disappointed.

O God of compassion, You alone can justify me and You will never reject me when I, contrite, approach Your Merciful Heart, where no one has been refused, even if He were the greatest sinners. "Sooner would heaven and earth turn into nothingness than would My mercy fail to embrace a trusting soul."

Jesus, Friend of a lonely heart, You are my haven, You are my peace. You are my salvation, You are my serenity in moments of struggle and amidst an ocean of doubts. You are the bright ray that lights up the path of my life. You are everything to a lonely soul. You understand that soul even though it remains silent. You know our weaknesses and, like a physician, You comfort and heal, sparing us sufferings—expert that You are.

Amen.
