Evangelization: Praying for the Dead:

The writer of second Maccabees assumed that praying for the dead was an accepted practice (2 Mc 12:44-45). St. Paul also assumed that praying for the dead was unquestionably accepted. He used this practice to support the validity of the Lord's promise to raise us from the dead (1 Cor 15:29). We know from early Christian history that the Gospel writers believed, too, that we should pray for the dead. The Catholic practice of praying for the dead, then, is an ancient one that unites all believers in a special way, beyond time and space. It remains a comforting practice as we remember with gratitude those who have gone before us.

DID YOU KNOW? FROM THE CATHOLIC CATECHISM FOR ADULTS: Communion with the dead. “In full consciousness of this communion of the whole Mystical Body of Jesus Christ, the Church in its pilgrim members, from the very earliest days of the Christian and ‘because it is holy and a wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins’ she offer her suffrages for them.” Our prayer for them is capable not only of helping them, but also of making their intercession for us effective. PRAYER FOR HOLY SOULS IN PURGATORY

Merciful Father, in union with the Church Triumphant in heaven, I beg You, have mercy on the souls in purgatory. Be mindful of Your eternal love for them and show them Your mercy because of the boundless merits of Your beloved Son. Free them from pain and sorrow so they may soon enjoy eternal peace and happiness. Heavenly Father, I thank You for the grace of perseverance which you have granted to the souls of the faithful departed.

Loving Savior, I beg You, in Your mercy set free the holy souls in purgatory, free them from the prison of darkness to the light of the Kingdom of Your glory. Loving Savior, I thank You for having redeemed the poor souls with Your most Precious Blood and saved them from eternal death.

God Holy Spirit, enkindle in me the fire of Your Divine love. Arouse my faith and confidence, and graciously accept the prayers I offer You for the suffering souls in purgatory. I wish to apply the merits of this devotion to the entire Church Suffering, but especially to my deceased parents, brothers, sisters, benefactors, relatives and friends. Hear my prayer that we may be united with them in the Kingdom of Your glory.
Amen.
